 CREW PROFILE

Eva Kant has a professional and friendly crew of 3:
Captain Luca Celotto, Deckhand Francesco Avino and Stewardess Nanny Linnea

CAPTAIN: LUCA CELOTTO, Italian

Luca is from Naples and since he was a child, he has always shown a great interest for the sailing world, carrying on the tradition of his family, who is in the yachting industry since 1974. Luca was only a young boy when he started to sail on board an Optimist at the Sailing Club of Castellammare di Stabia. In 1995 Luca started to help his uncle in the ship transfers towards Southern Italy; he took care of more than 50 transfers. In 2002 he definitively understood that the yachting was his path and so decided to start his career in the field. His first job as Captain came on board BLUE, Fiat 50 Feet, then on board FLORA, Itama 46 (2005/2007), AZIMUT 55 (2008/2010), ITAMA 60 (2011/2012), CANADOS 72 G&G (2013). In 2016 Luca embarked on DIABOLIK, RIVA VERTIGO 63, where he spent two charter seasons. Luca holds the Nautical Licence; he has successfully passed his exams time ago and, obtained the Yachtmaster. Luca is a bright and cheerful person, polite and respectful. He speaks English fluently.

DECKHAND: FRANCESCO AVINO, Italian

Francesco is from Naples.

Francesco graduated at the Technical Institute Nino Bixio in Piano di Sorrento (Naples). Despite his young age, Francesco has already gained much experience in the yachting industry as deckhand. During the 2015 summer season he embarked on SABEA, M/Y for charter and in 2016 he embarked on DIABOLIK, together with Captain Luca; they are really a strong team of young, motivated and competent professionals. Francesco is an honest and good-willing guy who enjoys teamwork. He has excellent learning abilities and a strong capacity to adapt to different situations. He speaks English and French.

DECKHAND: NANNY LINNEA, Finnish

Nanny is Finnish and after graduating from a language school in Helsinki, she moved to Positano in Italy. The beauty of the Amalfi Coast and its sea, which has always conveyed in her feelings of peace and freedom, immediately captured her heart. This great connection with the sea, led Nanny to initially work on Charter yachts, where she later discovered the world of the yachting industry.

Nanny decided to follow her dream of becoming a Stewardess.

With professionalism and kindness she promises customers unforgettable holidays.

Nanny speaks Italian, English and Finnish
