SEVEN DAYS CHARTER CRUISING NORTH SARDINIA & SOUTH CORSICA FROM AND TO OLBIA (SARDINIA)

Day 1

Guests arrive and board the yacht in Olbia. Olbia is one Sardinia's largest town, a great place to start your yachting cruise. Olbia, the "happy city" as it was called by the Greeks is a city of history and culture, fun, fashion and shopping; the city has doubled its number of inhabitants between 1951 and 1981 and is today a center growing in population and economy. Olbia represents one of the most important tourist centres in Sardinia thanks to its archeological evidences and the many beautiful landscapes. This territory is full of beautiful beaches and coves, therefore it is very difficult to make a selection from which to choose to make your holiday exclusive; heading north along Golfo Aranci there are a mix of attractive beaches in Lido of Pittulungu made by golden sand and crystalline emerald waters, alternate with less crowded areas such as Cala Moresca with the small Island of Figarolo and Cala Sabina, inaccessible by land, where it's possible to anchor and enjoy the untouched beauty that nature offers. Stop along the way for swimming and diving. Relax and enjoy the sun and the sea, tasting delicious snacks and drink tasty cocktails. Continuing towards the north there are wonderful locations by the Gulf of Marinella, Porto Rotondo, and then throughout the Costa Smeralda.

Day 2

Awake leisurely after your night out and cruise in your yacht around to Cala di Volpe, a small natural "harbor" in Arzachena; its strategic position and offers easy access to other famous Costa Smeralda beaches as well, such as Spiaggia del Principe, Grande and Piccolo Pevero, Liscia Ruja, and Romazzino. The small village is best known for the luxury hotel with the same name Hotel Cala di Volpe .

Days 3 & 4

Heading North after a few miles you will see the magnificent Maddalena Archipelago rising, known as the Polynesia of Italy for its crystal clear, turquoise waters made up by 7 major islands (La Maddalena, Caprera, Budelli, Santo Stefano, Santa Maria, Spargi, Razzoli) and other smaller islands surrounded by the beautiful clear and transparent sea. Among the bigger islands, Caprera has become popular for hosting Garibaldi during his exile: nowadays its house is a historic house-museum. The Maddalena Archipelago was declared National Park in 1994 and is one of the most beautiful and unspoiled parts of Sardinia. The several beaches and coves of the archipelago are famous for the clearness of its waters and are very appreciated by tourists and foreigners. Cala Corsara is considered one of the best locations: it is to be found on the isle of Spargi and features a fine white beach and clear blue sea. The Spiaggia Rosa (the pink beach), on the Isle of Budelli, is the most fascinating: it takes name from the characteristic pink color of the sand, due to breakage of the shells of tiny marine animals.

Day 5

Cruising towards Corsica it takes just over 20/25 miles to bring you to the stunning islands of Cavallo and Lavezzi en route to Bonifacio. You can stop along the way for swimming and diving from your boat. Spend your day relaxing, enjoying the sun and the sea, tasting delicious snacks the chef will prepare for you and drinking cold refreshments. The Iles de Lavezzi are a group of small, barren uninhabited granite islands, 10 km southeast off the coast of Bonifacio, with beautiful shell sand beaches and azure-colored sea. The islets are a paradise for swimmers, snorkelers and divers.

Day 6

No yacht charter to Corsica is quite complete without entering the dramatic port of Bonifacio, situated at the very south of the island.

Bonifacio is a star attraction in Corsica, drawing visitors from all over the island and overseas to marvel at its medieval houses precariously teetering on the edge of the imposing limestone cliffs.

Bonifacio's Old Town, with a labyrinth of narrow streets and historic buildings is a fascinating place to wander around boasting a busy marina filled with impressive yachts and lined with chic bars, restaurants, and hotels, enhancing the vibrancy of this fashionable coastal resort. Add to this the fact that Bonifacio is close to several idyllic, unspoiled Corsican beaches as well as staggeringly beautiful mountains, and you have a near perfect, varied holiday destination.

Maybe enjoy dinner at the 'Club Nautique' on the harbor, a popular local restaurant with a pleasant view over the port and offering excellent pasta and fish dishes. For golf enthusiasts the Golf of Sperone is a magnificent course set in a wild and unspoiled location.

Day 7

Leave Corsica for Sardinia. When you reach Olbia you will have an unforgettable view: The Tavolara Island, offering one of the most amazing landscapes overlooking the sea. Tavolara is one of the fascinating islands along the Sardinian region where you can find nature's beauty at its best with sandy beaches and bays along with the seashore. After a day in the sun and sea, cruise to Porto Cervo Marina for the night. Nightlife in Porto Cervo is very animated and offers plenty of options everyday: café, discos, cocktail lounges, bars, clubs and local seafood restaurants. The day after, cruise back to Olbia and disembark there.
